

6. The Blackbird Song

The People Choir

The People

$\text{♩} = 80$

On the far side of the wall, You can hear the black-bird sing, It sees my love, hid from my gaze, I see her now I hear her call, Though she's lost for all my days.

Peo.

9

Peo.

17

The black-bird flies and sing my love, and sing my love, and sing to my love, I must remain, and sing my love, and sing my love, and sing of my love.

Peo.

23

Peo.

30

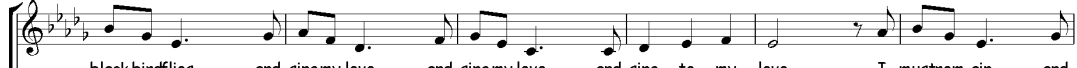

In the time before the wall, When my love and I once walked, Neath a sky, no boundaries know, I see her

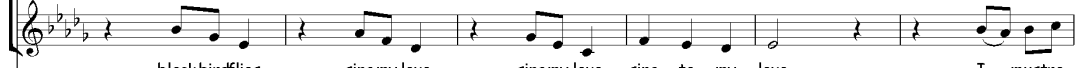

37

Peo.
 now, I hear her call, Yet this wall makes love die slow. ^{8va} The 44

Peo. black birdflies and sing my love, and sing my love, and sing to my love, I must rem ain, and

Rest
 black birdflies sing my love, sing my love, sing to my love, I mustre-

50

Solo Land, —

Peo.
 sing my love, and sing my love, and sing of my love, In this land, cut by the

Rest
 main, sing of my love, sing, sing of my love, sing of my love.

58

Solo
 — Dreams, — Ev - ery day, Seeds, — Love, — Hear her call,

Peo.
 wall, we tend-ed our dreams ev-ery day, Plan-ted seeds to har vest love, don't see her now, don't hear her call, Is this the

Rest
 —

65

Solo
wish of the Gods above? black-bird flies sing my love,

Peo. wish of the Gods above? The black-bird flies and sing my love, and

Rest
black-bird flies sing my love,

72

Solo
sing my love, sing to my love, I must re-main, sing of my love,

Peo.
sing my love, and sing to my love, I must rem-ain, and sing my love, and

Rest
sing my love, sing to my love, I must re-main, sing of my love,

77

Solo
sing, sing of my love, sing of my love.

Peo.
sing my love, and sing of my love.

Rest
sing, sing of my love, sing of my love. sf sf sf